NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 16, 2005--In BW5721 issued May 13, 2005: Second graph, first sentence of release dated May 13, 2005 should read: If you are a member of the class, as defined above, and sustained damages, you may, no later than July 12, 2005, request that the Court appoint you as lead plaintiff (sted If you are a member of the class, as defined above, and sustained damages, you may, no later than July 13, 2005, request that the Court appoint you as lead plaintiff).

The corrected release reads:

MILBERG WEISS ANNOUNCES THE FILING OF A CLASS ACTION SUIT AGAINST MOLSON COORS BREWING COMPANY AND CERTAIN OF ITS OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS, AND THE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE ADOLPH COORS COMPANY, ON BEHALF OF INVESTORS

The law firm of Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP announces that a class action lawsuit was filed on May 13, 2005, on behalf of: (i) former shareholders of Molson Inc. ("Molson") who received shares of Molson Coors Brewing Company ("Molson Coors" or the "Company") (NYSE: TAP - News) as a result of the February 9, 2005 merger of Molson by and into the Adolph Coors Company ("Coors"); (ii) open market purchasers of the common stock of Coors from July 22, 2004 to February 9, 2005, inclusive; and (iii) open market purchasers of the common stock of the Company, following completion of the merger between Molson and Coors on or about February 9, 2005 to April 27, 2005, inclusive, and who were damaged by the decline in the Company's stock. Plaintiff is seeking remedies under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act").

If you are a member of the class, as defined above, and sustained damages, you may, no later than July 12, 2005, request that the Court appoint you as lead plaintiff. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Under certain circumstances, one or more class members may together serve as "lead plaintiff." Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. You may retain Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman LLP, or other counsel of your choice, to serve as your counsel in this action.

The action is pending in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware against the Company, Peter H. Coors, W. Leo Kiely III, Charles M. Herington, Franklin W. Hobbs, Randall Oliphant, Pamela Patsley, Wayne Sanders, Albert C. Yates, Timothy V. Wolf, Peter Swinburn, David G. Barnes and Peter M.R. Kendall. A copy of the complaint filed in this action is available from the Court and can be retrieved using the case number (05-294), or can be viewed on Milberg Weiss's website at: <http://www.milbergweiss.com>

The complaint alleges that in order to get the necessary shareholder approval for the merger between Coors and Molson, defendants failed to disclose, in press releases and Proxy Statement(s), that: (i) At the time the merger closed on or about February 9, 2005, which was well into the first fiscal quarter of 2005, Coors was not operating according to plan and had experienced material adverse changes in its business; and (ii) at the time of the merger, defendants had violated the terms of the merger agreement and Proxy/Prospectus by failing to disclose that Coors's business was being, and foreseeably would continue to be, adversely impacted by conditions that were causing Coors to perform well below plan and consensus estimates. Defendants concealed these material facts because it enabled them to effectuate the merger in a manner that allowed the relatives and heirs of the Coors and Molson families to dominate the combined Company, as detailed in the complaint.

On April 28, 2005, only weeks after the merger closed, before the open of trading, defendants published a release announcing disappointing results for the Company's first quarter of 2005. Immediately following publication of this release, shares of the Company fell precipitously, almost $14.50 per share, to $63.00 per share, a decline of almost 20%, a testament
